

MAY 2023

gp COUNSELING CORNER

Michelle Gates
(217)-236-9161

gatesm@griggsvilleperry.org

Allison Dokey
(217)-833-2352

dokeya@griggsvilleperry.org

How to Keep Engaged & Learning Over the Summer

Active Summer Learning Ideas

- King Park - story walk, pool, park, fishing, skateboard park
- Lowry Park - walking path, park, basketball court
- Pike County Animal Shelter - volunteer to clean cages, walk and play with animals
- Griggsville Park - story walk, park
- Pittsfield Lake - ball fields, kayaking, frisbee golf, fishing
- Plant a garden
- Camps - MVCSC, sports, art
- Camp Callahan
- North Pike Library - reading challenge, other to be scheduled activities
- Pike County Art Guild - Summer Art Camp (advertised on FaceBook)
- Illini Fitness- Youth Training Program (advertised on Facebook)
- MVCSC (mvcsc.net)
 - Family Fun Day - May 21
 - Outdoor Sportsman's Camp - June 23-25
 - Cooking Camp - July 7-9
 - My Parent and Me Camping/Fishing/Backpacking Trip - August 5-7

Summer Reading Fun

Free summer reading incentive programs. At Scholastic, you can take the Read-a-Palooza Summer Challenge – over the course of 18 weeks, kids can enter their summer reading minutes online, unlocking digital rewards as they complete weekly reading challenges; and access book excerpts, videos, and other summer-exclusive content. Sign up for Pizza Hut's BOOK IT! summer reading program, where you'll receive weekly emails with reading activities for kids.